WHY STUDY LAW AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TARTU?

- Tradition of law studies: School of Law is one of the oldest faculties of the University of Tartu, where lawyers have been educated since the university was founded in 1632;
- Cornerstone of Estonian rule of law: UT graduates make up 87% of the members of the Estonian Bar Association, 100% judges and 95% of prosecutors;
- Forward-looking society: Estonia is considered an international leader in the field of IT for its technological and legal e-solutions;
- Personal touch: small group sizes in classrooms;
- Practical focus: emphasis on case studies, opportunity to apply theoretical knowledge into practice;
- Global careers: graduates will be ready to provide legal advice across jurisdictions and work anywhere in the world.

Address for enquiries:
International Recruitment
University of Tartu
Ülikooli 18-104, 50090 Tartu, Estonia
+372 737 6109
studyinfo@ut.ee

WHY UNIVERSITY OF TARTU?

- The oldest and most prestigious university in Estonia: founded in 1632, UT is ranked in the TOP 3% of the world’s best universities (THE World University Rankings 2015/16) and in TOP 5 of Eastern European universities (QS University Rankings 2015/16);
- The biggest university in Estonia with 14 000 students in 4 faculties located in 5 cities;
- Top research institution: UT belongs to the top 1% of the world’s most-cited universities in 9 research areas;
- International community: 1000 international students from over 80 countries;
- Exchange opportunities offered by partner universities in more than 25 countries and student exchange programmes e.g. ISEP and Erasmus+;
- Safe, modern and innovative study environment: international students are 89% satisfied with their experience in Estonia (ISB 2014).

send us your question: ut.ee/ask
International Law and Human Rights is a 2-year master’s programme providing comprehensive knowledge of the principles, regulations, subjects and practice in the field of international law and human rights. The studies take place in Tallinn, the capital of Estonia, with close proximity to various governmental institutions and international organisations. Graduates have the necessary knowledge to work as specialists in international, intergovernmental and non-governmental organisations in Estonia and abroad.

PROGRAMME DURATION: 2 years

LOCATION: Tallinn, Estonia

CURRICULUM STRUCTURE TOTAL 120 ECTS
- General courses (48 ECTS) – courses covering international relations, international settlement disputes, international law and human rights
- Elective courses (30 ECTS) – an option to choose from a fixed list of courses
- Optional courses (6 ECTS) – all courses available at UT and other Estonian universities
- Practice (6 ECTS) – an option to choose between practice in international law or human rights law
- Master’s thesis (30 ECTS)

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS
- Bachelor’s degree or equivalent level of education (180 ECTS), including at least 60 ECTS of law courses
- English language proficiency

TUITION FEE & SCHOLARSHIPS
- €2000/year
- Tuition-waiver scholarships TBA

APPLICATION DEADLInE: April 15

Programme contacts
Dr. iur. René Värk
Programme Director
rene.vark@ut.ee